FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PPD EXPANDS OPERATIONS TO SHELBY TOWNSHIP, MI

TROY, MI (May 29, 2018) - L. Mason Capitani CORFAC International is pleased to announce that Polymer Process Development has entered into a long-term lease agreement at a 75,000 square foot industrial facility located at 11969 Shelby Tech Drive, in Shelby Township, Michigan. They plan to vacate two facilities and consolidate into their new building later this summer.

PPD, which has approximately 150 employees, currently owns a building in Clinton Township and leases the second site in Chesterfield Township. They specialize in glass encapsulation, injection molding, glass assembly, prototyping, 3D printing, assembly and finishing. "We enjoyed being in Macomb County and really wanted to remain in the area if at all possible," Robert Brisley, President and co-founder of PPD, said in a statement. The company's founders are Perry Giese, Bill Smith and Trpko Trpevski. Jason Capitani, of L. Mason Capitani CORFAC International, represented PPD in the lease transaction.
